

CALL FOR PAPERS

FOWT 2020: 22, 23, 24th April 2019, Marseille

Submission deadline: October 4th, 2019

Official language is English

The submitted papers will be reviewed by FOWT's Scientific and Technical Committee. The selected abstracts will be expected to be translated into powerpoint presentations lasting no longer than 10-12 minutes.

FOWT 2020's central theme will be: "Floating wind: definitely accelerating, truly global".

Your submissions will need to address the following topics, will need to be original and specifically prepared for FOWT 2020:

1. Commercial-scale readiness: latest lessons learned from existing floating offshore projects (digitalization, O&M, scalability, cost-reduction, etc.)
2. Floating offshore wind: an onshore matter? Harbor infrastructures and on-shore solutions supporting commercial-scale FOW deployment
3. Innovations in grid and electrical connections: electricity transmission and multiple uses
4. New geographies, new applications: the full potential of FOW
5. Floating offshore wind: a WIN/WIN deal for the environment?
6. Innovations in methods and key components (not floating concepts) paving the way to a competitive LCoE
7. Supply-chain readiness: from demonstrators and pilot farms to serial production (from mooring systems, cables and wind turbines to offshore operations)
8. Financing and insuring commercial-scale wind farms: a steadily growing appetite
9. Developers and utilities: how to become a leader in FOW?
